

FAHD QUDDUS MD

QUALIFICATIONS

October 2008 – ABIM Hematology Board Certification

October 2008 – ABIM Medical Oncology Board Certification

July 2011 – Pennsylvania Medical License

April 2009 – Nebraska Medical License

October 2008 – American Board of Internal Medicine Certification

February 2005 – ECFMG Certification

1998 to 2003 – Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery,
Allama Iqbal Medical College, Lahore, Pakistan

WORK EXPERIENCE

August 2012 – Current – Resident Education Core Faculty Member & Educational Director for Hematology Division. Geisinger Medical Center. Danville, PA

July 2011 – Current – Associate Physician, Hematology Oncology Division. Geisinger Medical Center. Danville, PA

July 2009 – June 2011 – Chief Fellow, Hematology Oncology Fellowship. University Nebraska Medical Center. Omaha, NE

July 2009 – June 2011 – Journal review/Contributor for OncologySTAT, an on-line educational resource by Elsevier.

July 2008 – June 2011 – Hematology Oncology Fellowship. University Nebraska Medical Center. Omaha, NE

July 2005 – June 2008 – Internal Medicine Residency Training. Englewood Hospital and Medical Center, A Mount Sinai Affiliate. Englewood, NJ.

May 2005 – June 2005 – Research Associate, Hematology-Oncology.
University Massachusetts, MA

March 2005 - April 2005 – Research Associate, Pediatric Hematology-
Oncology, University Massachusetts, MA

February 2005 – Observership Radiology, Park Ridge Hospital.
Rochester, NY

PUBLICATIONS / PRESENTATIONS

October 2012 – Geisinger Health Center Medicine Grand Rounds,
GMC Danville PA. “Post-Transplant Lymphoproliferative
Disorders”. Fahd Quddus MD

April 2010 – Journal of Hematology & Oncology. “Oral Ertzatiostat HCl (TLK199) and Myelodysplastic syndrome: A case report of sustained hematologic response following an abbreviated exposure”.
Fahd Quddus MD, Azra Raza MD

February 2009 – The Cancer Journal. “Salvage Therapy for Hodgkin
Lymphoma”. Fahd Quddus MD, James Armitage MD

January 2007 – US Oncology. “Iron Overload: Screening and Diagnosis”. Fahd Quddus MD, Naomi Galili PhD, Azra Raza MD

June 2007 – American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO) Annual Meeting. “Validation of International Prognostic Scoring System in more than 1600 Myelodysplastic Syndrome Patients”. Fahd Quddus MD, Naomi Galili PhD, Azra Raza MD et al.

June 2007 - American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO) Annual Meeting. “Prognostic Value of Low Platelets in Myelodysplastic Syndrome Patients with Del (5q)”. Naomi Galili PhD, Fahd Quddus
MD, Azra Raza MD et al.

November 2006 – American College of Physicians (NJ Chapter). “A Rare Case of Lupus Nephritis with Polymyositis Successfully Managed with Mycophenolate Mofetil and Steroids”. Fahd Quddus
MD, Ivan Enriquez MD, Louis Jan MD.

RESEARCH

June 2012 – Current – “Metformin and survival benefit in cancer patients with concurrent type 2 diabetes: a systemic review and meta-analyses”. Geisinger Medical Center. Danville, PA.

June 2012 – Current – “Single Center Post Transplant Lymphoproliferative Disorder outcome in the Rituximab era”. Geisinger Medical Center. Danville, PA.

June 2012 – Current – “A Multicenter, Open Label Phase I / II Study of CEP-701 (Lestaurtinib) in Adults with Myelofibrosis”. PI, Geisinger Medical Center. Danville, PA.

February 2009 – March 2010 – “Phase II Trial of Cytosan, Etoposide, Vincristine and Prednisone (CEOP) Alternating with Pralatrexate as Front Line Therapy for Patients with Stage II (bulky), III and IV Peripheral T-Cell Lymphoma (PTCL-U, AITL and ALK-negative ALCL)”. Research Associate, University Nebraska Medical Center. Omaha, NE.

July 2005 – June 2007 – “To Evaluate the Clinical Efficacy of Coenzyme Q10 in Patients with Myelodysplastic Syndrome”. Research Associate, Englewood Hospital and Medical Center. Englewood, NJ: I carried on my research efforts initiated in University of Massachusetts for application of the protocol in a community hospital setup.

May 2005 – June 2005 – “Follow Up Pilot Study to Evaluate the Clinical Efficacy of Coenzyme Q10 in Patients with Myelodysplastic Syndrome”. Research Associate, Rhadhey Khanna MDS center. University Massachusetts, MA

March 2005 – April 2005 – “To Determine Whether the Substitution of Three Intensified Phases of Post-induction Treatment for Standard Phases will Improve Event Free Survival of Children With Standard Risk- Average Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia”. Research Associate, Pediatric Oncology. University Massachusetts, MA

March 2005 – April 2005 – “To Determine Whether Addition of Four Doses of PEG Asparaginase, Given Once Every Three Weeks during Consolidation and Interim Maintenance Phases, Will Improve the Event Free Survival for Children with Standard Risk - Low Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia”. Research Associate, Pediatric Oncology. University Massachusetts, MA

March 2005 – April 2005 – As a research associate, I was involved in preparing a survey for Pediatric Palliative Care titled: “Family Satisfaction with End of Life Care”. Pediatric Oncology. University Massachusetts, MA

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

American Society of Clinical Oncology

American Society of Hematology

American Medical Association

American College of Physicians

VOLUNTEER WORK

August 2003 – July 2004 – The Patient Welfare Society. Lahore, Pakistan. The Society was involved in a number of patient welfare activities including arranging blood for patients as well as spreading awareness of various movements such as the polio eradication campaign.

1998 – 2003 – Volunteer work at a local cancer hospital, Shaukat Khanum Memorial Cancer Hospital. Lahore, Pakistan

LANGUAGES

Fluent in English, Urdu, Hindi, Punjabi

HOBBIES & INTERESTS

Reading, Travel, Soccer, Skiing, Cricket